

LOW VOC GUNWASH

Rexall Solutions' ready to use, Low VOC Gunwash is a powerful solvent blend designed for the rapid cleaning of spray guns, equipment, and tools employed in automotive finishing processes. It swiftly dissolves paint residues, making it highly effective for maintaining cleanliness in the industry.

Read Instructions and Safety Procedures: Before using the product, it is crucial to thoroughly read and comprehend all provided instructions and safety procedures.

Hazardous Materials: The product contains hazardous materials, indicating the potential presence of substances that may pose risks. As a result, caution is warranted.

Proper Protective Equipment: Users are strongly advised to use proper protective equipment at all times. This ensures that individuals are adequately shielded from potential hazards associated with the product.

Consult Labels and Safety Data Sheet: To obtain comprehensive information on safe handling procedures and personal protection, individuals should refer to the labels on each product and consult the safety data sheet (SDS). This information is vital for understanding and mitigating potential risks.

DIRECTION:

general purpose cleaning of spray equipment.

TECHNICAL DATA:

APPEARANCE:	Light yellow to clear liquid
(Specific Gravity:	0.809
Freezing point:	0 C
% Weight Volatile (VOC)	29.5